Tips for Nominating Someone For An Award

- Review the criteria for the award and make sure the nominee fits the bill for that award.
- Get as much background information as is possible on your candidate – make sure to include information on the year and place of graduation, work experience, boards, councils, committees on which he/she has served, including non-pharmacy organizations.
- Get some testimonials from colleagues (other pharmacists but also other members of the team – doctors, nurses, technicians, etc.), clients and anyone else who can support your candidate with concrete evidence of excellence.
- Once you've got your information gathered write a letter of reference explaining how the accomplishments meet the award's criteria and stating why this person deserves an award.

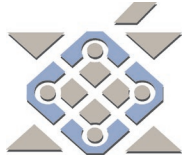

Nomination for an award must include the following:

- Completed nomination form signed by two active members
- Minimum two letters of reference
- CV or biography of nominee / or tell us in story format why this individual deserves this award
- Background documentation to support the award nomination

Deadline Date: July 31 – If received late, this nomination will be forwarded for the following year. The Awards Committee accepts nominations all year round, we encourage everyone to participate in the Awards Nomination Process at any time during the year.

AWARDS OF THE NB PHARMACISTS' ASSOCIATION

SCOTT KNOWLES MEMORIAL NEW PRACTITIONER SERVICE AWARD

To a new member (5 years or less since graduation and licensed in the profession practicing pharmacy in NB) for exceptional service in or for pharmacy. This award may honor innovation and / or excellence and may be for service to the profession or to the public served by the pharmacy practice of the nominee.

BOWL OF HYGEIA

To recognize a pharmacist whose service in his/her community extends beyond professional duties. Pharmacists make valuable contributions to the life of their communities, their province, their country that prevent them from making as great a contribution to the affairs of their profession. Some are able to do both. This award recognizes all these services with a special emphasis on community.
